Beaverton Police considered its most recent alcohol minor decoy mission a complete success when none of the seven businesses contacted sold alcohol to an underage operative.

The nineteen year old police cadet entered both stores and lounges and attempted to purchase alcohol. The operational plan called for him to produce his own driver's license, if asked. Each business successfully determined the cadet to be under twenty one and refused to sell.

“Our success is measured by how few arrests we have to make when doing these sting operations. We celebrate both the fact that no one sold alcohol to our cadet and the partnerships between police, local businesses and OLCC are working”, commented police Chief David G Bishop.

Those businesses that passed the operation on March 29th were:

Chili's Grill and Bar 12025 SW Canyon Rd.

Walker Rd. Chevron 18335 NW Walker Rd.

The Cheerful Sportspage 8590 SW Hall Blvd.

Sushi Boat 14800 SW Murray Scholls Drive #101

Chevron Extra Mile 14850 SW MurrayScholls Dr.

Pesaro Italian Grill 14500 SW Murray Scholls #103
